PROFESSORS L. HART WRIGHT, ALAN POLASKY, WILLIAM PIERCE AND MRS. DOUGLAS BROWN, a law school research associate, were asked recently by Representative Conlon, Chairman of the Michigan House Tax Committee, to put in bill form the general recommendations of a citizens advisory committee appointed by an interim tax committee of the Legislature.....The recommendations have now been compiled into 25 bills, one of which involves an adaptation of the federal income tax law to a state setting. Professor Wright stressed that the group's work was in response to a request by an officially constituted body to do a particular job of a particular type, and that they had avoided the policy making aspects of the overall problem, considering it beyond the scope of their assignment.

THE SCHEDULE OF COURSES FOR THE 1959 SUMMER SESSION will be made available within a few weeks. Visiting Professors include: Professor Merrifield, of George Washington University Law School, who will teach a 3 hour course in Labor Relations and a one hour course in Workmen's Compensation; Mr. Schulman, a recent graduate of Yale Law School and presently a clerk for Associate Supreme Court Justice Harlan, who will offer a 3 hour course in Problems of Federal Jurisdiction; and Professor Oberst of Kentucky Law School who will teach a 3 hour course in State and Local Taxation during the first 5-1/2 weeks.
